

All players will be required to remain behind the basketball courts endline until the referee blows the whistle