

PREPAREDNESS AND BUSINESS CONTINUITY CONSIDERATIONS FOR BC SCIENCE AND RESEARCH AREAS

A major storm, power failure, water main break, hazardous material exposure, structural failure or fire could damage buildings on campus, in some cases forcing closure for weeks or months, and will certainly interrupt the activities of those in the affected area. This document is provided to help you consider precautionary steps to protect faculty, students and staff, secure research materials, and safeguard facilities

