

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. law. This information is not legal advice and

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. law. This information is not legal advice and is not a replacement for legal advice from a trained attorney. All information is current as of the date it was produced.

- How do people in your community or your child's school access interpreters?

PART C) Final Reflections

As a class, discuss your answers to the following questions, considering your experiences and those of people you know who are immigrants or refugees.

- What might be hard or problematic about using an interpreter during a school conference? How could these challenges be addressed?

These lessons contain some basic information about U.S. law. This information is not legal advice and is not a replacement for legal advice from a trained attorney. All information is current as of the date it was produced (April 2016).